WHAT'S GOING ON IN THE LIBRARY?

The last couple of weeks:

- Kindergartners solved a mystery using their five senses.
- 1st grade explored the differences between nonfiction and fiction.
- 2nd grade continued to work with call numbers and practiced alphabetizing.
- 3rd grade used their knowledge of call numbers to compete a scavenger hunt.
- 4th grade read "Twenty-One Steps" and learned about the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.
- 5th grade took a genre personality quiz.

Books We Have Enjoyed

Book Checkout

- Students in Kindergarten may borrow one book
- Students in 1st grade may borrow up to three books at a time.
- Students in 2nd grade may borrow up to five books at a time.
- Students in grades 3rd-5th may borrow as many books as they are responsible for.

Items are checked out for two weeks at a time and can be renewed for an additional two weeks.

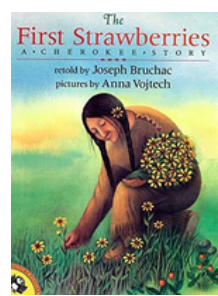

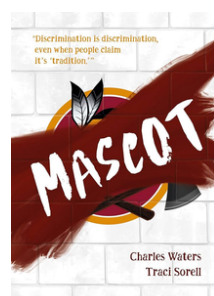

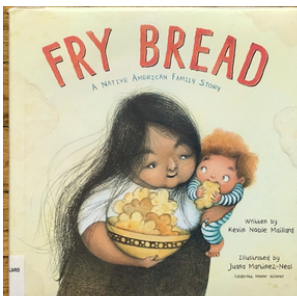

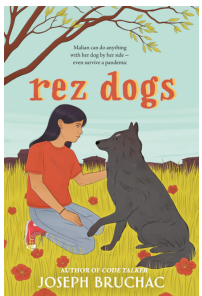

Students who finish their books before their scheduled library time are encouraged to come to the library during our open checkout every morning from 8:35-8:50.

Native American Heritage Month

November is National American Indian Heritage month. Click on the link to pay tribute to the rich ancestry and culture of Native Americans.

PBS also has a Native American Heritage Collection where you can look at Native American art, history, and culture.

Children's Book Week Nov. 4-10

Children's Book Week started in 1919 and is the longest running literary initiative. Each year the initiative selects a theme to promote quality children's books. This year's theme is "No Rules, Just Read" Go here to learn more about the initiative:
